State concessions to proto-political activities neither change formal institutions, nor build solidarity. They helped setup and run a considerable heavy industrial base driven by the current economic theory of self-reliance and import-substituting industrialization.

Each of these essays explores the place of politics in the social life of modern India. However, calling them in some ways self-regulating does not mean romanticizing them into democratic communities, or unchanging ones. Practical Matters Students wanting to participate should submit a short letter explaining why they want to participate and how the problematic of the Masterclass is relevant to their own research topic and their methodological and theoretical interests.
