Thegoodnewsisthatourrecentssystematicreviewandmeta-analysisof37Ran Psychological therapy in prisons and other settings. As one example, Alison Mills and Kathleen Kendall examined mental health in-reach teams, which are now present in most British prisons to serve the function of referring prisoners to the same range of services as would be available to them in community settings. The Psychological Service is investigating why this is, and its Bi-Cultural Therapy programme should address it. ViewCart.I find some articles and have discovered that career Military have the same problems coping. Thanks for listening.
