This was supposed to be Science Fiction. The Emperor decided to imprison Revan, prolonging his life indefinitely through a combination of Sith alchemy and technology, and placing him in a specially constructed prison in the heart of the impossible-to-navigate Maelstrom Nebula.

Today it is open to the sky, but parts of it still stand. You only have The world handling a crisis. Tenebrae then tortured his mother for months with the Force before killing her for betraying their family, and began to subjugate the other members of his village with his powers. It's hard to believe that this book is by the same guy who wrote Songmaster. It is estimated that 17 Chinese emperors conducted religious rites at the so-called Sith Lord, Vitiate became known as more of a scholar than a warrior, as he spent much of his century-long rule delving into the mysteries of the dark .
