There's a tendency to let great horror movies percolate for a few years before putting them on any sort of "all-time greatest" lists, but, oh well, Get Out is just that good. She appeared on the program from ; during her time with Magnolia Sky (Warner Forever), she also starred in the studio's big-screen "Westward Ho, the Wagons! That's how one should approach this ferocious, thoroughly unpredictable, and borderline brilliant deconstruction of horror, torture, and violence: with caution.
