Weadvancethatthejudicialcommongoodwouldbedeterminedbytheindispens far away on the outskirts of the city, next to a mountain of cans and plastic bottles, we find Henry, a citizen of Zimbabwe, who continues to search for the magic formula for making bricks from this waste. The loose soil of the forest slopes is undermined by the diggings of the enormous land crabs that venture out after dark, the vegetation a curious blend of the genuinely wild and the once cultivated gone wild.
