Practical Leadership | People. Strategy. Results.

I started Practical Leadership because I am passionate about creating pathways for people and organizations to learn and grow. Practical Leadership is about.

6 principles of effectiveness - The Practical Leader

It's difficult to talk about leadership in a short period of time and even more difficult to discuss briefly the differences between leadership and management.

They assume that once the candidate signs, you no longer have to work to make your organization attractive because they have accepted an offer. This is simply not true. Also, in PRACTICAL LEADERSHIP if a manager fails on his part, he should be immediately removed from higher authority in whatever swift motion possible.

The workshops, case studies and self-development activities are redesigned. They talk to the awkward kid that has a hard time even making eye contact. Sometimes a few hard measures are necessary, but that's a decision a leader should make.
