if the courts overturn Republicans Cant Be Right of these power grabs, as they have in North Carolina, Republicans will remain securely entrenched in the legislative majority through their own hyper-gerrymandering—in Wisconsin last month, 54 percent of the total votes cast for major-party candidates gave Democrats just 36 of 99 assembly seats—so they will go on passing laws to thwart election results. Establishing a norm of voting with one's acquaintances is one way to influence them to go to the polls.
