I totally disagree with you however I have seen parents treat their son or daughter as if they are best friends. It's not easy being a woman in this world, and despite countless moments of exasperation, I was proud that my daughter was strong-willed from the start. The pain is crippling, but I look at my 3 beautiful children and know there is no way to replace . Ihavemycrucifixready!Itisclearyouareprojecting. There are cases where it's mostly the parents fault and there's cases where it's mostly the adult child's fault. That I more than deserved every slight or unkindness. Working moms can also take comfort from their own kids. I did not claim they were your statistics. Hindsight is much harder in youth.
