And it's walking that line, where you're writing something that is comprehensible to your Children of Time but at the same time isn't simply slapping a mask on a human viewpoint. Five stars because of the incredible, millennia- spanning plot. There is that same sense of wonder and immersion – being carried along on an alien world with hosts both familiar and strange at the same time.

They may share the same name but often have very different personalities. You can order it. I loved this!! This is by no means the perfect novel, but for me it was excellent science fiction consumed at a time that I was yearning for it.

New masters have turned it from a refuge into mankind's worst nightmare. Ancient am glad I listened to the audio version of. More filters.
