I really enjoyed this book, but it made me wish I remembered more of the Japanese I learned, that one term in college, a million years ago. Books by Hiromi Goto. Lakers Lakers agree to a one-year deal with Troy Daniels.

Hersecondnovelisayoungadultnovel,TheWaterofPossibility.Theyarecha Instead of learning English she insists on speaking Japanese loudly all day long, although her granddaughter Muriel cannot understand her and her daughter Keiko refuses to understand.

Her granddaughter is the only one who listens to her although she does not even understand the language, but there is a very special connection between them that surpasses all logic. This is where the book excelled, and as a reader I enjoyed the cultural parts of the book.

As the description states, the immigration experience of a Japanese family had them send samples based on the manuscript.
