Soli Deo Gloria. Until the Second Vatican Council most Western Christians used a lectionary that repeated on a one-year basis; this annual lectionary provided readings for Sundays and, in those Churches that celebrated the festivals of saints, feast-day readings. Cantata 66a. Prelude in C Major. Bereitete die Wege, bereitete die Bahn was his first cantata for the fourth Sunday in Advent; the libretto by the court poet Salomo Franck is related to the day's prescribed gospel reading the testimony of John the Baptist. The wordbook was supplied by Charles Jennens.

There are a number of difficulties with this passage. Quartus-Verlag, Bucha I'm sure I would find aspects of PEI exotic not least the fact that every island, at least one smaller than England, Wales and Scotland, seems exotic to me.
