A TV series is a better venue than a movie for sure, since it can be tweaked over time much more easily. I'd allude more to what that purpose is, but it's a major plot twist that doesn't come about till late in the second novel. Oh come on! This is book 5 of your David Grossman series. Just fascinating - this article! The project, from Skydance Television, has been put in development for straight-to-series consideration. The trick is to talk to the audience like a toddler, but make them think they are being reasoned with by an idiot.
