By contrast, Princess Brambilla is a complex and controversial work. The obstacle to that union is the actor Giglio, who is in love with Brambilla and ultimately convinces himself that he is Chiapperi and has slain Giglio. The household, dominated by the uncle whom Ernst nicknamed O Weh or "Oh dear" in a play on his initials was pious and uncongenial.

Hoffmann's influence extended far beyond the more narrow area of the gothic. The city was bombarded; many people were killed by bombs directly in front of. Volume II, no. The city of Berlin was also occupied by Napoleon's troops.

These relatively late introductions marked his work profoundly. Hoffmann, never attended a single lecture by the university's most renowned professor, Immanuel Kant. On the other hand, the author's own "Serapion Brethren" read the work with dismay, and more than one reader since has begun it with all good will and put it impatiently by.
